United Airlines President:

Economic Statesman Named

William A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines, has been selected for S.U.'s 1962 National Award for Economic Statesmanship. The announcement was made yesterday by Dr. Paul Volpe, dean of S.U.'s School of Commerce and Finance. The Very Rev. A. A. Lemieux, S.J., president of S.U., will present the award at a luncheon on May 15, in Seattle.

Patterson is being honored "for his lasting contribution to the strength and growth of American enterprise and specifically for his eminent leadership in the building of the air transportation industry."

Europe Tour Countdown Starts Monday ... Fr. Gill

The countdown for Fr. Gill's European Tour starts at 8:30 p.m. Monday in the Marycrest dining room. Fr. William Gill, S.J., has announced that all students, whether prospective tour members or not, are invited.

Fr. John Fitterer, S.J., who has studied at the Gregorian University in Rome, will speak on Rome following the movie, "Rome, The Eternal City."

After the lecture, Carrol Collins will sing and Daryl Spadaccino will play both accompaniment and solo on the piano. Coffee and cookies will be served to all interested students.

FR. GILL announced that the deadline for tour arrangements is May 10. The tour will blast off on June 15. An added attraction of the S.U. tour is the $300 extension through Great Britain and the Scandinavian tour which will be included without charge.

A representative of the Mary North Travel Agency and Fr. Gill will answer any questions about tour prices, schedules, and destinations. Recent grads of S.U. as well as those currently attending S.U. are welcome to join the tour.

Princi-pill to Swallow?

Do some people try to carry this business of Christian principle too far? Let's be practical. When principle begins to jeopardize job, or reputation, or suggests that we pit ourselves against the torrent of public opinion, is it time for that principle to go?

Current events in Louisiana provide a case in point. Just see what can happen when some "misdirected person" gets swept away by a warped piety. The Archbishop of New Orleans recently announced that "all Catholic children may apply for admission to the Catholic schools." Is it clear that the bishop has disregarded all the sociological and environmental problems in the South that has brought about this feeling of insecurity among the people? Not only this but has he misinterpreted the precepts of Christianity?

This can be tolerated to a point, but can he expect to defy all this tradition and force his will upon free citizens of the community, requiring that they integrate schools? Is he infringing on the rights and dignity of a good many people?

TAKE LEANDER H. Perez, for example. Clearly the case of such "an abused and unfairly treated" person. Mr. Perez is a simple Southern oil tycoon, who has had to struggle through as a meager district attorney for the past 36 years.

We can hear his humble plea as he cries out in self defense to the "Catholic" laity of Louisiana, asking their aid against this "misguided prelate": "Cut off their (the bishop's) water. Quit giving them money to feed their fat bellies." The Catholic laity rallies to this cause so dear to their hearts at the crystal chime of Mr. Perez' flawless reasoning: "If he didn't intend him to be inferior, why did God make the black man?"

THOSE OF US in the far away North may take this situation to heart and see how the misuse of principle can be the cause of so much pain in life. Can we also rest assured, however, that this problem is "extremely distant" and we may be thankful that here in Seattle there is no such instance of the underprivileged infringing on the rights of the overprivileged, . . . or is there?

Yes, it might be well if all of us (including the New Orleans "Catholics") would stop and think by what right did Christ have to get angry at those money changers in His Father's Temple and apply this in our own situation?

Cindy's listening to flowers talk

Do flowers talk? Cindy knows they do. In a quiet, friendly way they say — Hello! We're here. The older she gets, the more Cindy will discover companionship, and wonder, in things that grow.

Gardeners understand this feeling best. They've worked their fingers in warm, musky soil. Watched a shoot catch its first sight of day.

Standard has been gardening, too, for over 30 years. Today our ORTHO Division makes 60 products to help gardens grow better, more easily, all over the world.

To give a lawn that luxurious look. Help a tree wear its mantle more proudly. Or coax a cascade of blooms from a rosebush.

Standard's gardener-scientists never stop looking for better ways to nourish and protect your garden. In laboratory and test plots they're searching, experimenting, proving.

Out of this research have come many gardening "firsts," which you can share by reading the ORTHO Lawn and Garden Book, available at garden supply stores.

At Standard we're interested in everything that grows . . . whether it's a hillside's bright blanket of flowers, or one proud plant in a window box.

S.U. Stickmen to Put Win String on Line

By MIKE McCUSKER

Eddie O'Brien's baseball troupes, with two wins in their first two starts, will resume the wars against S.P.C. and U.W., today and tomorrow at Broadway Playfield.

The Falcons will be home team for today's 1:30 double-header. S.P.C. does not have its own diamond.

O'BRIEN WAS LEFT "unconvinced" after S.U.'s twin sweep over Western Washington, which means that Chieftain followers can look for more line-up changes.

"Based on Tuesday's performance, we had very fine pitching," O'Brien commented. "I was real pleased with their (Keenan and D'Amico's) control. Our hitting was disappointing, but it's early in the year."

Bob Neubauer, three-for-six, heads the batting department.

S.U. will be hoping to carry over from last season, when the Chieftain charges captured four contests from S.P.C. Denny Hodovance, a freshman, is slated to start the first game. Either Jim Arnsberg or lefty Jim Hatzembihler will go the second.

Ken Laase, southpaw freshman from Ballard High, will open one game for S.P.C.

COACH DALE PARKER, former U.W. mentor, described his Falcons as green but promising. "Basically, we're a very young team. This is a building year. We have four freshmen and three transfers in the starting line-up," said Parker.

"We have a young pitching staff. The infield play will be our strongest point, although the shortstop and second-baseman are freshmen. I'm trying to see what they can do under fire."

Parker looks for a good-hitting team. In their opening 8-1 loss to U.W., the Falcons left 12 base-runners stranded.

Saturday's single game will match the Chieftains against U.W. at 2:30 p.m. The teams split four tilts last year.

SAFE! Rich Kayla, S.U. third baseman, scores the first run of the season in S.U.'s five-run third inning, Tuesday. Kayla was one-for-three in the game. The Chiefs swept a pair from Western Washington, 5-0 and 2-1.

Intramural Track On Spring Agenda

Dave Nichols, intramural assistant, has scheduled intramural track and field meets for May 5 and May 19 at Garfield High. The meets will be open to all students and faculty members.

There will be separate classifications for men and women.

Hanses Headed For Pin Tourney

Mark Hanses, S.U. senior, left last night on an expense-paid trip to Des Moines, Iowa, to compete in the A.M.F. National Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament. The selection was based on his showing in the regional tourney at W.S.U. in February.

Hanses is part of a five-man team representing the Northwest this weekend. He will fly back early next week.

Hanses will match pins against approximately 60 other bowlers who compiled the best scores in their regionals.

Last quarter, Hanses averaged 193 in S.U.'s intramural league.

Chiefs Select All-Foe Five

Oregon State and Bowling Green dominated S.U.'s 1961-62 all-opponent basketball selections, released yesterday by Bill Sears, athletic publicity director.

Named to the first team were O.S.U.'s Jay Carty and Mel Counts, Bowling Green's Nate Thurmond and Howard Komives, and Oregon's Charley Warren.

The second-team nominations were Porter Merriweather and Ron Smith, Tenn. State; John Bryant, Mont. State; Terry Ball, W.S.U., and Carroll Broussard, Texas A. & M.

Earlier in the week, it was announced that S.U. junior Eddie Miles was a unanimous pick to the Idaho State all-opponent list for the second straight time. Senior Tommy Shaules placed on the Bengal second team.
